BAND DIRECTOR

Vestry is pleased to announce that St. Mark's has hired a new Saturday Band Director. Starting September 1st our new Band Director will be Bob Earle.

Bob was first called to music ministry in 1988 as the organist and senior choir director at the Parish of St. John the Evangelist in Topsail. In 1996, he moved to St. Augustine's in St. John's where he fulfilled the same role. In 2003 he started their praise band, Jacob's Passage, which has provided music for services and fundraising events throughout the Avalon. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religious Studies and Music History from Memorial University, and was ordained as a Deacon in the Eastern Diocese of Newfoundland and Labrador in 2009. In May of 2018, he will celebrate 25 years of marriage to his wife, Kathy, with whom he lives in Torbay. They have three Pomeranians, one cat and no children.

We welcome Bob and Kathy to our St. Mark's family and we are very excited that he will be leading this important ministry.
