Music at St. Mark's

St. Mark the Evangelist Choir has enhanced the life of St. Mark's parish for forty years, leading congregational hymns and singing special anthems at Sunday morning worship.

The first organist was Bob Caravan. Reverend Ken Abbott and Patricia Young, with assistance from Sandra Long and Mark Payne, served as both organist and choir director from 1978 until 1982.

Organists filling the position during the last 35 years have been Carolyn Hart, Glen Chafe and Rhonda Wicks, with Michael Janes as assistant.

The current Choir Director is Rosalind Bartlett.

The Choir has also been present to lead the singing at Christmas carol services, memorial hymn sings and special carol services for seniors.

Members of the parish also enjoy Café Marcus evenings, variety concerts, Italian dinners and other entertainment and fundraising activities hosted by St. Mark's Choir.

St. Mark's was also home to an intermediate and a junior choir for several years and their choral presentations and solos were well enjoyed by the congregations.

Music for Saturday evening worship service is provided by St. Mark's Saturday Band.
